PUBLIC CHOICES IN TEMPORARY ECLIPSE AT JACKSONVILLE TRACK.

Milton B. Only First Choice to Score and His Victory Is of Fluky Sort-Abolition of Valets Accomplished.

Jacksonville, Fla., February 4.—Keen contests were the order at Moncreif Park this afternoon. Milton B, was the only winning favorite and his victory was of the fluky sort. Sager, which finished second to him, was easily the best horse in the race and lost only because he was the victim of a bungling rice. Jockey Roseo Trooter was in good form. He rode three winners and two of them were not the hest horses in their races.

The breeding bureau added another racer to its collection of thoroughbreds when the Dr. Hasbronck mare. Tileklins, won the opener, which was what is known as a breeders' purse.

Homer Selby furnished the winner of the two-year-old race in Kentucky Rose, which beat Bendaga a head after a gruelling stretch drive.

The professional valets were abolished today and in their stead ten boys, picked by Captain Duhain of the Pinkerton service, were employed by the association to look after the wants of the jockeys. Everything ran smoothly and it looks as if the new arrangement may be successful.

F. J. Pons purchased Turncoat this morning and he ran in his name and interest in the third race this afternoon.

M'DOWELL STRING IN TRAINING.

Lexington, Ky., February 4.—T. C. McDowell's string of twelve thoroughbreds for his 1910 campaign were transferred from Ashland Farm to the Kentucky Association track today. The stable is made up of King's Daughter, Huck, Berwick, Ellena-Dale, Star Actor. Princelike, Ecstacy, the unnamed three-year-old geldings by Nasturtium—Belle of Ashland and by Allan-a-Dale—Monarka, and these three two-year-olds: Brown filly by Hastings—Monarka; chestnut filly by Allan-a-Dale—Fancywood, and chestnut gelding by Allan-a-Dale—Belle of Ashland. Berwick, which was not raced at all last year, is now a gelding and is much improved in appearance. The horses are all in excellent winter condition and ready for training.

The only foal thus far at Ashland this year is a for training.

The only foal thus far at Ashland this year is a filly by Planudes out of Fancywood. The good stake mare, Megg's Hill, by Ben Brush, has dropped abrown colt by Disguise at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud.

A. D. Worley arrived here yesterday from California in charge of Earl Linnell's stallions, Kismet and Fountainblue. They are quartered at J. O. Keene's farm.

C. L. Harrison of New York, owner of Waldo. arrived from Chattanoga yesterday and this morning went with Fred Forsythe to Louisville to see the soa of Planudes and other horses quartered at Churchill Downs.

KENTUCKY DATES APPLIED FOR.

Cincinnati, O., February 4.—A. B. Rouse, secretary of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, has called a meeting of the commission for Saturday at Lexington for the purpose of passing upon applications for license and spring dates. The Kentucky Association at Lexington has applied for dates from April 30 to May 7 inclusive.

Latonia has applied for thirty days of racing, beginning May 30. It is likely that Louisville will race from May 9 to 28 inclusive.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

g, H. Page of Warren, Pa., arrived at Lexington y., yesterday in quest of thoroughbreds suitable at the plechasing.

Paul J. Rainey is reported to have sold the $45,600 De Mund to his brother Roy and the horse will go to the latter's Virginia farm.

There has been registered at the Jockey Club a three-year-old sister to Fitz Herbert to which the name of More Trouble has been given.

The good jumper, Thistledale, has been sold to Robert Boyle and will be trained this year. Boyle recently took over the stable owned by Maurice Kranss.

Ginette, Masada and Pronta dropped foals in France last year by Sir Wilfred that will be eligible to all French races. The mares were shipped abroad to foal with that object in view. John E. Madden has sold a two-year-old brother to Sir Martin for $12,000 to Louis Winaus, the English sportsman who paid Madden $75,000 for Sir Martia and Edward. The colt will be shipped from Ken-tucky to England to join the Winaus stable in June.

The veteran trainer, William Lakeland, has eight bonses in training this year, including a two-year-old brother to Electioneer. The colt is a chestnut, marked like most of the other get of his sire Voter, and is said to be a good one. Mr. Lakeland feels cheerful over the turf outlook for 1910.

The Ontario Horse Breeders' Association, comprising the Clydesdale, Shire, Hackney, Thorongalbred and Pony societies, has adopted a strong resolution profesting against the Miller anti-betting bill, now bending in the Canadian Parliament, which, it is held, will militate against the breeding of thoroughbreds.

held, will militate against the breeding of thoroughbreds.

Cornelius J. Enright, who bred Hamburg at Elmedorf Farm before that famous nursery passed into the hands of James B. Haggin, has given up breedling race horses and is now living at Covington, Ky.
He still retains an active interest in racing and is now spending a brief vacation at New York, after having been in attendance at Moncreif Park for several weeks.

A still hunt for Morganatic, the dam of Fitz Herbert, has been set afoot, with John E. Madden behind it, Morganatic was sold for a trifling sum before Fitz Herbert began to distinguish himself.
She has vanished as Silk Gown, the dam of Garry
Hermann, vanished after the Breeders' Protective Association of Kentucky purchased and then sold her seithout pedigree.

without pedigree.

Bob Smith has returned to this country from Great Britain for a flying visit. Mr. Smith found when he arrived in England some six weeks ago that the gentlemen who had invited him to train for them were scattered over Europe on pleasure excursions. He learned that they would not return home for a couple of months, so he thought it best to come back to America and wind up some business he had to leave unfinished because of his recent hurried departure for the other side. Mr. Smith expects to sall for Europe again in a couple of weeks.

SEVENFULL RUNS SPARKLING RACE.

Consistent Mare Defeats Strong Opposition in Juane Feature-Hackett Establishment to Continue.

Feature—Hackett Establishment to Continue.

El Paso, Tex., February 4.—Captain Ned Hackett, the venerable and wealthy California sportsman, saw Miss Danville, a highly-prized filly bred by his brother, the late Captain John Hackett, win the second race at Terrazas Park today with intense pleasure and emotion. He immediately declared that he would abandon his intention of selling out and would instead continue the breeding and racing of thoroughbreds on a big scale. The daughter of Yellow Tail—Lady Muriel was one of the laie Captain John Hackett's favorite fillies. The outstanding racing feature of the afternoon's sport was Sevenfull's victory in the five-turlongs dash, which was run in 1:06, from Light Knight, Execute, Colonel Bob, The Fad, Gypsy King and Orbed Lad. Sevenfull had been dispiaying such consistent form at this meeting that the spectators accorded her an ovation such as has hardly been vouchsafed to any other horse racing here. Judging by today's showing. Orbed Lad has been prematurely acclaimed a good race horse as, with Archibald up and riding for all he was worth, the son of Smile was seemingly unable to raise a respectable gallop and finishing absolutely last.

Jerome B. Respess' colors were victorious in the invenile feature, his home-bred filly, Esma, by Dick Welles—Remember Me II., leading a big band of two-year-old fillies home in :40½, which is but two-fifths of a second removed from the best American time for three and a half furlongs. Esma, coupled with Leap as the Respess entry, was almost backed off the boards. Trainer A. L. Kirby had been having more than his share of bad luck recently and was congratulated on all sides. Luke Cafee easily won the mile race and confirmed the indefinite suspension of jockey Small, who had ridden him to defeat in his previous race. The racing so far has been extraordinarily clean and free from scandal, and the elimination of another undestrable in a jockey way neets with universal approval. The big slump in jockey Archibald's form is one of the mest cons showing.

C. S. Wilson's good apprentice jockey, J. Wilson has been restored to good standing.

TAMPA MANAGEMENT AFTER HORSES.

Tampa, Fla., February 4.—Cold weather and a poor card put a damper on the sport here this afternoon, The attendance, however, was large. The sprint race at five and a half furlougs, in which a lillie Hibbs, John Garner, Lucullus and Tom Dolan met, resulted in another victory for Billie Hibbs, the properties of the solid part of the sprint race at five and a half furlougs, in which a lillie Hibbs, John Garner, Lucullus and Tom Dolan met, resulted in another victory for Billie Hibbs, the properties of the second part of the second part of the second part of the second and the second for her defeat. In the closing dash private Diana's success was due mainly to Glasner's should have won.

Close finishes came with the running of the second and third races. In the former Vanadium, after many attempts, managed to earn brackets when he coutstayed Joe Fallert. My Love surprised the sharps in the third by downing the favorite, Sally Savage, Another upset came when Masks and Faces, showing good form, won the fourth race. The proverbial blanket could have covered the next four to finish, Bonebrake being awarded second money over Banade, the favorite.

Prestding Judge P. Dunne was absent from the stand this afternoon, having accompanied General Manager Strode to Jacksonville to solicit shipments of horses here. During Judge Dunne's absence Judge Godshaw will be the ranking official and Secretary Norvell will act as associate judge. Messrs. Dunne and Strode are expected back tomorrow.

The Shaw representatives are enthusiastic over prospects here. They expected to find things in a bad way here generally, and they are surprised by the volume of play, it having been well over the $25,000 mark daily since Gene Austin assumed charge of the booking.

A miscellaneous consignment of horses arrived from Jacksonville this morning.

OAKLAND JOCKEYS FIGURE IN FRACAS.

San Francisco, Cal., February 4.—Jockeys E. Marland today and as a result the first named boy was suspended for ten racing days for all but the Schreiber stable, while a fine of $50 was imposed on Taplin. The trouble started during the running of the Marlinez Handicap. Taplin, on Raleigh P. D., struck Martin, rider of Binocular, with his whip while they were in the stretch. Throughout the last sixteenth Raleigh P. D. was in close quarters and, after he was beaten a nose by Binocular. Taplin made a ciaim of foul. It was not allowed and on the way to the paddock the two jockeys engaged in another argument. When the paddock was reached Martin stepped up behind Taplin and struck him. Taplin retaliated with such force that he dislocated two fingers and was unable to ride out his engagements. The victory of Binocular came as a surprise. Bit of Fortune, the medium of heavy support, took the third race. Phil Mohr, sold by Barney Schreiber to J. L. Ross, was an odds-on favorite that made a disappointing showing.

Secretary Treat received word that Johnson & Gray will ship five horses from Juarez in the car with the Bedwell string. Orbicular, Giles and Servile are among them.

are among them.

Massa and L. C. Ackerley were brought from Vallejo today and will be trained by Frank Mahone.

Arrangements have been made by which jockey
Shilling will ride Meltondale in the California Derby in the event that H. G. Bedwell does not have a starter.

Shilling will ride Meltondaie in the California Derby in the event that H. G. Bedwell does not have a starter.

J. L. Ross, who formerly raced a stable on California tracks, is organizing another string and has purchased Phil Mohr from Barney Schreiber. He plans to start the colt in the California Derby.

The mother of jockey A. Thomas is negotiating with an eastern turfman with a view to securing that promising apprentice an engagement on the metropolitan tracks the coming summer.

BROWNLEIGH PARK STABLE'S JUVENILES.

New York, February 4.—The two-year-olds that will carry the white and brown of the Brownleigh Park Stable during the coming season are:

Centre Rush, ch. g, by Stalwart, dam Barbara, by Himyar.

Beel Lomond, b. c, by Ben Strome, dam Monita, by Harbard.

Ben Lomond, b. c, by Ben Strome, dam Monita, by Hamburg.
French Glass, by Bohemian Glass, dam Plaisance, by Sir Modred.
Merryhorn, ch. c, by Eikhorn, out of the Morello mare Mercelles.
Lady Rosaile, br. f, by Handspring, dam Lady Slavey.
Hornells, br. f, by Eikhorn, dam Carcanet, by the celebrated Australian sire Carbine.

FITZ HERBERT'S PHYSICAL CONDITION.

New York, February 4.—Dr. McCully, the veterinary who passed on Fitz Herbert's physical condition before his recent sale for $40,000, says:

"I never examined a horse in more satisfactory condition. Fitz has not a pimple on him. He should make a great four-year-old. The only time Fitz Herbert was ever lame was in the autumn of 1908. When Mr. Hildreth was preparing him for the Futurity one of his feet was pricked by a horse-shoe nail. The injury was sufficiently serious to keep Fitz away from the post in the valuable race, which fell to Maskette, with Sir Martin second and Helmet third. But it did him no permanent harm. Mr. Hildreth believes that Fitz Herbert would have beaten Maskette if he had got to the post in the Futurity."

Went to post at 3:50. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Sevenfull set a terrific pace from the start and drew out decisively in the last three furiongs. Light Knight met carly interference, but finished like a shot and is extra good. Execute ran in prominent and persistent contention throughout. Colonel Bob ran into quick prominence and finished close up. The Fad essayed to keep pace with the favorite and was forced to retire after going the first quarter, but held on well. Gypsy King trailed and was badly outpaced to the stretch, but was gaining finally. Orbed Lad seemed unable to raise a respectable gallop and ran a discreditable race.

Winner—B. f, by Ornament—St. Ursula (trained by H. H. Selby).

Went to post at 2:49. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Kentucky Rose was taken the short route and saved much ground on every turn, fought it out closely with Bendaga through the homestretch and outgamed him at the end. Bendaga ran well, but went a bit wide when entering the homestretch and this cost him the race. Lady Ornicant finished resolutely and ran a good race. White Wool bore out on the home turn, while Sylvan Dell and Renovator went to the outside feace. The former then bore over to the inside and is a better filly than the chart shows. The winner was entered for $900; no bid.

Winner—B. g. by Claude—Ville Marie (trained by D. Hill).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Miiton B., favored by good racing luck and well ridden, was prominent to the stretch and took the lead, but just lasted long enough to staad off Sager's rush. The latter, given a bungling ride, had to force his way through in between Milton B. and Lothario in the last sixteenth and failed to get up, but was best. Lothario showed a fine turn of speed and set the pace fast, but tired when the final drive came. Dixie Knight Scratched—S7651²Anavri, 111.

Overweights—Lothario, 1 pound.

Winner—B, c, by Gold Heels—Jane Oaker (trained by J. S. Ward).

Went to post at 3:49. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same. Edwin Lewas saved from the early pace and waited with until straightened out in the homestretch, then wore Desconnets down, but swerved over to the inside in the last sixteenth. Desconnets was much used in parting after Grande Dame in the early running and was tiring when the winner caught him. Oberon, well up throughout, ran his race. Grande Dame showed much speed, but quit in the last quarter. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—$15564 Roseburg II., 109.

Overweights—Desconnets. 3 pounds; Fore Guard, 1½.

Winner—B. g, by Giganteum—Miss Doone (trained by F. Regan).

Went to post at 4:98. At post 1 minute, Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Ar outbroke his opponents and drew away into a long lead on the backstretch, but was tiring in the last f long and had to be hard ridden to stall off Lois Cavanagh. The latter ran well and kept bearing out in 1 homestretch, but finished gamely. Gold Dust was always prominent, but ran a dull race. Killiceran dropped far back quickly and closed a gap in the final quarter. Malediction ran fairly well. Pimpar showed speed, but failed to stay. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—87216 Countermand, 114.

Overweights—Gold Dust, 3 pounds.
